

Elysia Murray

Elysia Murray was baptized in April 1988 and has faithfully served the church through both ministry and leadership. She is a trained teacher and holds a master's degree in social work as well as a Master of Arts in Theology, which equips her to minister with compassion and strong biblical understanding. She currently serves as a School Counselor.

Over the years, Murray has contributed significantly to church life as a choir member, choir director, youth fellowship president, and assistant youth director. She is also an ordained Evangelist, dedicated to spreading the Gospel and nurturing spiritual growth within the body of Christ.

Her life and ministry are shaped by her personal mantra:

“I am a royal priesthood, a holy nation, and a peculiar people.”

Her favorite scripture, Galatians 5:1, reflects her passion for Christian freedom and steadfast faith:

“Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free.”
